European Commission

Migration, Foreign and Security Policy

Europe has been confronted with large scale migration in recent years due to wars, conflicts and poverty across the globe. It has been up to the EU to manage migration and strike a balance between responsibility and the solidarity amongst the Member States. However concerns over migration, foreign and security policy need to be addressed. Which of the ideas below are important to you?

Ideas for the future of Europe

- Promote the EU and its values – peace, democracy, equality and rule of law – inside and outside Europe.
- Express solidarity and volunteering in Europe and across the world.
- Support inclusion and integration through language courses for migrants, cultural exchanges with local communities and newcomers.
- Combat any forms of terrorism and enhance cybersecurity.

Topics young people believe should be a priority for the EU

40% *management of migratory flows & integration of refugees

35% security & defence

17% territorial cooperation & cohesion

Source: 2017-2018 Flash Eurobarometer

Next steps...

Want to explore these ideas further and get more involved in the European narrative? These questions may help stimulate your discussions.

How can the EU better support refugees and their integration?

What can the EU do to promote peace and stability outside of the EU?

Think about how these topics may impact you and come up with your own ideas – no matter how 'out there' they may seem – to improve Europe for you, for the better, and for the future.

What's your role in the future of Europe?

Education, Youth, Sport and Culture