I. Terms and conditions of use

I.1 The toolkit or one of its components may be used only if:

- the use does not create the impression or assumption that there is a connection between the user and any of the institutions, bodies, offices, agencies, programmes and organs of the European Union where such a connection does not exist;
- the use does not create the impression or assumption that the user benefits from the support, sponsorship, endorsement, approval or consent of any of the institutions, bodies, offices, agencies, programmes and organs of the European Union;
- it is not used in connection with objectives or activities which are incompatible with the aims and principles of the European Union.

II.2 The use of any or all of the components of the toolkit does not mean consent to registration of the components of the toolkit or an imitation thereof as a trade mark or any other IP right, nor does it confer the right to reuse the toolkit and its component parts for any other purpose than the promotion of the European year of Youth.

I. The "European Year of Youth visual" components are designed for the use of organisations that:

- are organising an event within the context of the European Year of Youth campaign.

II. The visual elements of the toolkit shall be used in its entirety without distorting, modifying or separating its component elements, including the tagline. The elements of the toolkit may be used, in accordance with the terms and conditions above, until 31/12/2025.

II. Legal responsibility

Any user that intends to use the toolkit or elements of it may do so on its own legal responsibility. The users will be liable for any abusive use and possible prejudice following from such use under the laws of the Member States or any third country applicable to them.

III. Right to pursue any abuse

The Commission reserves the right to pursue on its own initiative or on the request third parties:

- any use which does not comply with the conditions set out herein, or
- any use which the Commission deems abusive in the courts of the Member States or any third country.
