Supporting Cooperation Across Borders, Together

INTERREG VOLUNTEER YOUTH

Interreg Volunteer Youth (IVY) is a volunteering programme promoted by the European Commission to support cooperation in Europe.

IVY enables young people aged 18 to 30 to volunteer in Interreg programmes and related projects for 2 to 6 months. The purpose is to support and raise awareness about territorial cooperation while involving youth actively.

PLACEMENT OFFERS

IVY offers a diverse range of experiences, with volunteers supporting a variety of projects and activities across different regions. We welcome individuals from various cultural backgrounds, each bringing their unique competencies, experiences, and interests.
