European Solidarity Corps Programme in brief

The European Union is built on solidarity: solidarity between its citizens, solidarity across borders between its Member States, and solidarity in its action inside and outside the Union.

The European Solidarity Corps Programme ('the Corps' or 'the Programme') initiative was launched in December 2016. It aimed to create new opportunities for young people to engage in solidarity-related activities for the benefit of communities and people around Europe and first operated within the context of eight pre-existing EU programmes.

In 2018, the first European Solidarity Corps Programme Regulation¹ created a new, coherent framework for solidarity-related activities, with a dedicated budget of EUR 375.6 million for 2018-2020. It offered new formats and tools, with a sustained commitment to quality, in order to reach out to more young people and provide them with a valuable experience.

Between the launch of the Corps and the end of 2020, almost a quarter of a million young people registered on the Portal of the European Solidarity Corps, which demonstrates an extremely high interest in the initiative. Based on the positive reception of the initiative by young people and other stakeholders in the solidarity sector, the European Commission proposed an extension of the Corps to the programming period 2021-27.

The adoption of Regulation (EU) No 2021/888² gave the green light to a new generation of the Corps, covering the period of 2021-2027, with a budget of more than EUR 1 billion in current prices and activities that also now include volunteering in the area of humanitarian aid. The current generation programme now focusses fully on volunteering, in line with the wishes of the legislators.

By extending its scope to cover volunteering activities in support of humanitarian aid operations, the Corps now also contributes to needs-based humanitarian aid anchored on the fundamental principles of neutrality, humanity, independence and impartiality, and will help to deliver assistance, relief and protection where most needed. The Corps thus helps to address not only unmet societal needs in Europe but also humanitarian challenges in non-EU countries that have been or that could potentially be affected by man-made or natural disasters. Humanitarian aid volunteering actions of the European Solidarity Corps are guided by the European Consensus on Humanitarian Aid³.

Young people engaged in the Corps bring tangible benefits to places and communities in need. By participating in the Corps, they also gain essential personal, social and civic competences that will help them better cope in a rapidly changing world.

One of the transversal priorities of the European Solidarity Corps is to support participation in democratic life, promote common values and foster active citizenship. This was a key focus of the European Year of Youth 2022 which aimed to help young people to become active and engaged citizens. The Programme will build on the achievements of the Year and contribute to its long-lasting legacy as outlined in the Communication on the European Year of Youth adopted by the Commission on 10 January, 2024⁴.

The Corps contributes to achieving the objectives of the EU Youth Strategy 2019-2027 (the EUYS) which is the framework for EU cooperation in the youth field based on a 2018 Council Resolution⁵. The Commission has carried out an interim evaluation of the EUYS⁶ as foreseen in the Council Resolution, which was adopted on 11 April 2024. The evaluation complemented the Communication on the European Year of Youth 2022, both aiming to support future reflections on the post 2027 EUYS.

One of the key overall objectives of the EU Youth Strategy is to ‘Encourage young people to become active citizens, agents of solidarity and positive change for communities across Europe, inspired by EU values and a European identity’. Under the ‘Connect’⁷ priority area, the Commission proposes to expand mobility actions under the Corps and support its implementation through stronger policy cooperation and community-building activities.

The programme also offers a strong international dimension and contributes to the delivery of the Global Gateway strategy for a Stronger Europe in the World. Cooperation in volunteering activities has gradually become an important instrument for the implementation of EU external policies, based on European values, trust and autonomy.

The indicative budget of the 2025 European Solidarity Corps work programme amounts to EUR 166 000 000⁸. It constitutes the Financing Decision within the meaning of Article 110 of the Regulation (EU, Euratom) 2018/1046 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 18 July 2018 on the financial rules applicable to the general budget of the Union⁹ (the ‘Financial Regulation’ or ‘FR’).

1.1. STRUCTURE OF THE EUROPEAN SOLIDARITY CORPS

1.1.1. Objectives and actions of the European Solidarity Corps

According to the Regulation (EU) 2021/888 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 20 May 2021 establishing the European Solidarity Corps Programme and repealing Regulation (EU) 2018/1475 and Regulation (EU) No 375/2014 (hereafter ‘the Regulation’), the general objective of the European Solidarity Corps Programme (hereafter the ‘Programme’) is to enhance the engagement of young people and organisations in accessible and high-quality solidarity activities, primarily volunteering, as a means to strengthen cohesion, solidarity, democracy, European identity and active citizenship in the Union and beyond, addressing societal and humanitarian challenges on the ground, with a particular focus on the promotion of sustainable development, social inclusion and equal opportunities. As such, it also contributes to European cooperation that is relevant to young people.

The Programme sets up the following strands of actions:

- (a) participation of young people in solidarity-related activities’ strand, as referred to in Chapter III of the European Solidarity Corps Regulation;
- (b) participation of young people in solidarity-related humanitarian aid activities’ strand (the ‘European Voluntary Humanitarian Aid Corps’), as referred to in Chapter IV of the Regulation.

The specific objective of the Programme is to provide young people, including young people with fewer opportunities, with easily accessible opportunities for engagement in solidarity activities that induce positive societal changes in Europe and abroad, while improving and properly validating their competences, as well as facilitating their continuous engagement as active citizens.

To achieve its objective, the Corps implements the following operational actions:

- volunteering (volunteering under the ‘participation of young people in solidarity activities’ strand and under the European Voluntary Humanitarian Aid Corps);
- solidarity projects;
- networking activities;
- quality and support measures.

1.1.2. Participating countries

EU Member states take part in the European Solidarity Corps Programme, as well as the overseas countries and territories. In addition, the following non-EU countries are associated to the Programme in 2025¹⁰, in accordance with Article 13 of the European Solidarity Corps Regulation and based on specific agreements covering their association to the Programme:

¹⁰ Countries that are considered to be associated to the Programme as of 1 January 2021 are listed. If and when more non-EU countries complete the association process, this information will be made available on the website of the European Solidarity Corps. For the purposes

- Iceland;
- Liechtenstein;
- Republic of North Macedonia;
- Türkiye.

In accordance with Article 13 (2) of the European Solidarity Corps Regulation, the third countries associated to the Programme may only participate in the Programme in its entirety provided that they fulfil all the obligations which this Regulation imposes on EU Member States.

In accordance with Article 14 (2) of the European Solidarity Corps Regulation, legal entities from other third countries non-associated to the Programme may be eligible for the actions referred to in Articles 5 and 7 of the Regulation (networking activities, quality and support measures and volunteering under the ‘participation of young people in solidarity activities’ strand) in duly justified cases and in the EU’s interest. Among this group of applicants, in line with the EU Youth Strategy 2021-2027¹¹, Council conclusions of 5 June 2020 on Youth in external action¹² and the Youth Action Plan (YAP) in EU external action 2022 – 2027¹³, special consideration will be given to candidate countries, Eastern Partnership countries and Western Balkan countries, as well as other countries with whom the EU has association or cooperation agreements. The cooperation with these countries is in the EU’s strategic interest as it fosters the connectedness of this group of applicants with the applicants of EU Member States. For the participation of applicants from non-associated countries not falling within the aforementioned categories of countries in the actions referred to in Article 5 and 7 of the Regulation, it will be needed to spell out why broader eligibility is duly justified and in the EU’s interest.

Under the EU Enlargement Policy, the programme can be an important instrument to strengthen the informal and non-formal educational and volunteering systems of acceding countries, candidate countries and potential candidate countries and contribute to the process of aligning their legislation to meet the EU standards.

Another crucial aspect of the European Solidarity Corps is its ability to attract new talents to the EU, ensuring the Union’s competitiveness in the global labour market. Ultimately, the European Solidarity Corps can serve as a powerful tool for building bridges between diverse societies and fostering connections between like-minded individuals across Europe and the world.

of the eligibility conditions, applicants established in third countries negotiating association to the programme will be treated as entities established in an Associated Country, if the programme association agreement with the third country concerned applies at the time of the signature of the grant agreement.

¹¹ As mentioned in Recital 2.b of the Resolution of the Council of the European Union and the Representatives of the Governments of the Member States meeting within the Council on a framework for European cooperation in the youth field: The European Union Youth Strategy 2019-2027 <https://eur-lex.europa.eu/legal-content/EN/TXT/?uri=celex%3A42018Y1218%2801%29>

¹² <https://data.consilium.europa.eu/doc/document/ST-8629-2020-INIT/en/pdf>

¹³ <https://eur-lex.europa.eu/legal-content/EN/TXT/?uri=CELEX%3A52022JC0053>

The participation of entities from such countries is limited to acceding countries, candidate countries¹⁴ and potential candidate countries¹⁵ and, for volunteering in solidarity activities, third countries not associated to the programme neighbouring the EU¹⁶, and for humanitarian aid volunteering, to third countries where humanitarian aid activities and operations take place and where there are no ongoing international or non-international armed conflicts, subject to a substantiated Union’s interest as spelt out under each of the programme actions concerned.

The participation of these countries is fully in line with the EU Youth Strategy which calls “to foster the connectedness between young people in the EU and candidate countries, Eastern Partnership and Western Balkan partners, as well as with other third countries with whom the EU has association or cooperation agreements.” “Connections, relations and exchange of experience are a pivotal asset for solidarity and the future development of the European Union. This connection is best fostered through different forms of mobility.”

In addition, the Council conclusions of 5 June 2020 on Youth in external action, stresses the contribution of young generations to building stronger, more legitimate, peaceful and democratic societies, the programme contributes to promoting the meaningful participation and engagement of all young people, and hence in strengthening exchanges and dialogue between young people from the Union and partner countries, including the Eastern Partnership, the Western Balkans and the Southern Neighbourhood.

This is further supported by the Youth Action Plan (YAP) in EU external action 2022 – 2027. Specifically, the Youth Action Plan states that the EU will further promote young people-to-people contacts through the existing initiatives like the European Solidarity Corps, encouraging the participation of young people in volunteering and solidarity projects.

It is therefore concluded that participation of entities from – as well as participation by individuals legally residing in - the countries mentioned in footnotes 14-16 below is in the Union’s interest within the meaning of Article 14(2) of the Solidarity Corps Regulation.¹⁷

Organisations and individuals of third countries not associated to the Programme, including subsidiaries of such organisations and entities held by such third country individuals, may not be considered eligible to take part in some or all actions of the European Solidarity Corps programme, based on restrictive measures or guidelines adopted at EU level.

1.1.3. Bodies implementing the programme

The European Commission (Directorate-General for Education, Youth, Sport and Culture – DG EAC) is ultimately responsible for the implementation of the European Solidarity Corps. It manages the budget and sets priorities, targets and criteria for the Corps on an ongoing basis. Furthermore, it guides and monitors the general implementation, follow-up and evaluation of the Programme at European level.

¹⁴ Candidate countries (Albania, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Georgia, Moldova, Montenegro, Serbia, Territory of Ukraine as recognised by international law): https://european-union.europa.eu/principles-countries-history/eu-enlargement_en

¹⁵ Potential candidate country (Kosovo)

¹⁶ Third countries neighbouring the EU (1. EFTA country: Norway; 2. Neighbourhood East (Region 2): Armenia, Azerbaijan, Belarus; 3. South-Mediterranean (Region 3): Algeria, Egypt, Israel, Jordan, Lebanon, Libya, Morocco, Palestine, Syria, Tunisia) and 4. Russian Federation (Region 4): Territory of Russia as recognised by international law.

¹⁷ Participation by entities from third countries not associated to the Programme can however not be directly funded, see Art. 18 of the Solidarity Corps Regulation.

The Commission also bears overall responsibility for supervising and coordinating the structures in charge of implementing the Programme at national level and directly manages certain Programme actions. At European level, the European Education and Culture Executive Agency ('Executive Agency') is also responsible for implementing certain actions of the Corps (actions under direct management).

Implementation by the Executive Agency is according to the Commission Decision C(2022) 5057 delegating powers to the European Education and Culture Executive Agency.

The actions of the Corps are mostly implemented through indirect management. The Commission entrusts budget implementation tasks to National Agencies (NAs) established in each Member State and third country associated to the Programme. National authorities monitor and supervise the management of the Programme at national level. In accordance with Articles 62 (1) (c) and 154 of the Financial Regulation, the Commission may entrust NAs budget implementation tasks via the conclusion of Contribution Agreements under indirect management mode.

1.2. POLICY FRAMEWORK AND PRIORITIES

1.2.1. General policy framework

The European Union is built on solidarity, a shared value which is strongly felt throughout European society. Solidarity defines the European project and provides the necessary unity to cope with current and future crises. Solidarity provides a clear compass to guide European youth in their aspirations for a better Union. In the Rome Declaration, on the occasion of the 60th anniversary of the Treaties of Rome, the leaders of 27 Member States and of the European Council, the European Parliament and the European Commission reaffirmed their commitment to enhance unity and solidarity in order to increase the strength and resilience of the EU¹⁸.

Young people need easily accessible opportunities to engage in solidarity activities, through which they can help communities while acquiring useful experience, skills and competences for their personal, educational, social, civic and professional development, thereby improving their employability, their societal engagement, participation in society and social inclusion.

The establishment of the European Solidarity Corps was announced in 2016 as part of the EU's effort to promote solidarity and increase its investment in young people. The initiative was launched in the same year, by mobilising various EU programmes offering solidarity-related opportunities to young people. Following the adoption of the first European Solidarity Corps Regulation for 2018-2020, the activities of the Corps further expanded, making it a single-entry point for organisations and young people engaged in solidarity-related activities in Europe.

The Corps opens new opportunities for young people to carry out volunteering activities in solidarity-related areas and to devise and develop solidarity projects based on their own initiative. The Corps also supports networking activities for participants and organisations, as well as measures to ensure the quality of the supported activities and provide for the validation of their learning outcomes.

¹⁸ <http://www.consilium.europa.eu/en/press/press-releases/2017/03/25-rome-declaration>.

The Corps builds on the strengths and synergies of existing and preceding programmes, notably the European Voluntary Service and the EU Aid Volunteers. Consistency and complementarity with other programmes operating in solidarity-related areas is also ensured.

Young people are at the heart of the European project. The activities of the Corps are thereby coherent with the EU Youth Strategy for 2019-2027, adopted by the Council Resolution ¹⁹[OJ]. The EU Youth Strategy sets the framework for the European cooperation in the youth field, for the benefit of young people and encourages cooperation in core youth policy areas in order to engage, connect and empower young people. It also promotes cross-sectoral approaches and youth mainstreaming to address the needs of young people in various EU policy areas such as employment, but also climate change, environment, digitalization, health and other areas that affect them. The strategy makes reference to the 11 Youth Goals^[OJ] covering several fields that young people consider to be important. This overarching strategy is implemented through two of the main EU programmes supporting youth: Erasmus+ and the European Solidarity Corps - both programmes aiming to support, engage, connect and empower young people even more effectively, notably through mobility and cooperation activities.

The Corps is aligned with the ambitions of the European Commission outlined in the Communication on the European Year of Youth adopted on 10 January 2024²⁰ to give young people a stronger role in EU policymaking and to address youth concerns across key areas: health and wellbeing, environment and climate, education and training, international cooperation and European values, employment and inclusion.

As a legacy of the European Year of Youth, in 2025 the European Commission will further increase volunteering opportunities for young people to address the green transition. This is one of the sixty actions put forward by the European Commission in the follow-up of the European Year of Youth.

Humanitarian aid volunteering actions of the European Solidarity Corps are guided by the European Consensus on Humanitarian Aid²¹ and strive to contribute to enhancing the effectiveness and efficiency of Union humanitarian aid, in line with the Good Humanitarian Donorship principles. International humanitarian law and human rights law are promoted. In this regard, the European Solidarity Corps contributes to a positive image of Europe in the world, spreading its fundamental values, thus also facilitating international policy dialogue and EU public diplomacy actions.

Finally, the activities of the Corps are in line with the Commission's Reflection Paper – Towards a Sustainable Europe by 2030²². Just as with the Youth Goals, the Corps' activities help to achieve several Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs).

As foreseen in the European Solidarity Corps Regulation, the Commission and the Member States will cooperate on volunteering policies in the youth field via the open method of coordination. The EU Youth Strategy 2019-2027, among others, aims to encourage young people to become active EU citizens²³, agents of solidarity and positive change for communities across Europe, inspired by EU values as enshrined in the Treaties²⁴ and by a European identity. The interim evaluation of the EU Youth Strategy resulted in a positive assessment of the Strategy and its instruments, with proposals for further enhancing its influence, echoing the priority actions in the Communication on the European Year of Youth legacy, with the focus to give young people a stronger say in areas of their concern. The next EU Youth Report (planned for 2025) will cover the follow-up of some of the legacy actions of the European Year of Youth and of the results of the EU Youth Strategy evaluation.

More specifically, to give further meaning to the aspirations to involve young people in solidarity-related activities, and to ensure that the Corps can reach its full potential in cooperation with national schemes, the EU Youth Strategy suggests that the Commission and Member States cooperate on a supportive political, legal and administrative environment.

The Council Resolution on the EU Youth Strategy 2019-2027, and the annexed EU work plan for youth 2019-2021, called for the review of the 2008 Council Recommendation on the mobility of young volunteers²⁵. The Commission proposed this review in 2021, and the new Council Recommendation on the mobility of young volunteers across the European Union²⁶ was adopted in the spring of 2022, with the ambition to address the barriers that still hinder the involvement of youth in cross-border volunteering and solidarity and to provide also concrete actions to promote this mobility.

Complementarity with existing EU-level information networks relevant to the activities of the Corps, such as the Eurodesk network, will be ensured, as well as complementarity with existing schemes (particularly national solidarity schemes and mobility schemes for young people). The 2021-2027 Corps strives to build on the successful experience of the 2018-2020 period and further extend the scale of volunteering opportunities to the area of humanitarian aid, to contribute to the provision of principled, needs-based assistance to communities in third countries, notably in the area of disaster preparedness and post-disaster relief²⁷.

Since 2018, the European Solidarity Corps has become a unique gateway for solidarity opportunities across the European Union and beyond. As Europe was hit hard by the COVID-19 pandemic in 2020 and 2021 and by a series of natural disasters and extreme-weather events in 2021, the European Solidarity Corps demonstrated its resilience and adaptability, when participating organisations and young people stepped in to provide relief and assistance to communities and individuals wherever possible.

In 2025, in the context of the impact of Russia's war of aggression against Ukraine that continues to affect the lives of millions of people in the direct vicinity of the EU borders, the Corps will continue demonstrating the value of solidarity, in its action inside and outside the Union, by offering relief and assistance to the communities and individuals whose lives have been disrupted by the war that started in 2022.

²³ The European Solidarity Corps is listed as a priority action in the EU Citizenship Report 2017: Strengthening Citizens' Rights in a Union of Democratic Change, COM(2017)030, 24.01.2017.

²⁴ The Union is founded on the values of respect for human dignity, freedom, democracy, equality, the rule of law and respect for human rights, including the rights of persons belonging to minorities. These values are common to the Member States in a society in which pluralism, non-discrimination, tolerance, justice, solidarity and equality between women and men prevail.

²⁷ Including post-conflict relief.

1.2.2. Policy priorities

In addition to the objectives of the Programme outlined in section 1.1, the work programme 2025 will continue to pursue the following transversal priorities applicable to the EU actions in the field of youth, fully in line with the European Education Area²⁸, the Digital Education Action Plan²⁹ and the European Democracy Action Plan³⁰. A gender equality perspective will be mainstreamed throughout the Programme, in line with the principles of the Gender Equality Strategy 2020-25¹⁷.

- Inclusion and diversity

The European Solidarity Corps supports projects and activities actively addressing the issue of inclusion and diversity of all young people in the society.

In general, the Corps aims to promote social inclusion, tolerance, human rights and the value of differences and diversity, and to provide all young people with equal access to the opportunities offered under its actions. An inclusion and diversity strategy for the Programme has been developed to support organisations in reaching out to more participants with fewer opportunities, including individuals who for economic, social, cultural, geographical³¹ or health reasons, a migrant background, or for reasons such as disability and educational difficulties or for any other reasons, including those that can give rise to discrimination under article 21 of the Charter of Fundamental Rights of the European Union, face various obstacles compared to their peers. Appropriate mechanisms and resources are available to make sure that the specific needs of participants with fewer opportunities can be catered for.

The thematic SALTO³² Resource Centre for Inclusion and Diversity will also contribute to high-quality and inclusive implementation for this dimension of the Programme.

- Environmental sustainability and climate goals

Climate and biodiversity mainstreaming

The actions supported by the Programme contribute to the overall climate and biodiversity objective, as presented below, both by the prioritisation of the green transition and by the promotion of green practices at the level of the projects throughout the Programme.

³² Support, Advanced Learning and Training Opportunities

The European Solidarity Corps aims to make a meaningful contribution to the Commission’s commitment to tackling climate and environmental-related challenges³³. The Programme supports projects and activities aiming to protect, conserve and enhance natural capital, to raise awareness about environmental sustainability and to enable behavioural changes linked to individual preferences, consumption habits and lifestyles. The Programme supports initiatives aimed at preventing and mitigating or repairing the adverse effects of extreme weather events and natural disasters, as well as activities that provide support to affected communities in the aftermath of such extreme weather events or natural disasters.

In general, the Corps promotes the incorporation of green practices in all projects, regardless of the main focus of their activities. Organisations and participants involved with the Corps should have an environmentally friendly approach when designing their activities³⁴. Activities contributing to other existing EU initiatives in the area of environmental sustainability (e.g. the New European Bauhaus, EU Missions³⁵ and the EU Forest Strategy - more specifically its “3 billion trees” initiative on oceans clean-up, ecosystems restoration, city decarbonisation, climate risk adaptation, landscape regeneration) are highly encouraged. Furthermore, supported activities should strive to be as energy-efficient as possible and to make responsible choices in terms of energy use at the level of projects, as well as encourage other stakeholders and target groups of their activities - wherever relevant - to make such choices too.

The thematic green SALTO Resource Centre set up in 2022 will contribute to high-quality and inclusive implementation of the green dimension of the Programme.

- Digital transformation

The Political Guidelines of the European Commission³⁶ underline the need for Europe to lead the digital transition. The Digital Education Action Plan encourages action at all levels to contribute to the digital transformation through all forms of learning. The Corps aims to support Europeans, regardless of their gender, age and background, to live and thrive in the digital age through projects and activities that help to improve digital skills in general and/or foster digital literacy and to develop an understanding of the risks and opportunities of digital technology.

In general, the Corps promotes the use of appropriate and accessible information, communication and technology tools in all projects, regardless of the main focus of their activities.

Finally, the thematic digital SALTO Resource Centre set up in 2022 will contribute to high-quality and inclusive implementation for the digital dimension of the Programme.

³³ In line with the Conclusions of the Council and the representatives of the governments of the Member States, meeting within the Council – Fostering engagement among young people as actors of change in order to protect the environment 2022/C 159/07

³⁶ https://commission.europa.eu/strategy-and-policy/priorities-2019-2024/europe-fit-digital-age_en

- Participation in democratic life, common values and civic engagement

Participation, promotion of European common values and civic engagement are at the heart of the Corps. The activities supported by the Programme should aim to strengthen European identity (notably as regards common EU values, the principles of unity and diversity, and participating countries' social, cultural and historical heritage) and the participation of young people in democratic processes including European, national, regional and local elections, and through involvement in other EU initiatives, platforms revolving around participation and civic engagement.

Moreover, the European Solidarity Corps' implementation and therefore, the programme beneficiaries and the activities implemented under this Annual Work Programme have to respect the EU values of respect for human dignity, freedom, democracy, equality, the rule of law and respect for human rights, including the rights of persons belonging to minorities, in full compliance with the values and rights enshrined in the Article 2 of the Treaty on the European Union and the rights and principles enshrined in the Charter of Fundamental Rights of the European Union, particularly Article 21 on non-discrimination.

The thematic SALTO Resource Centre for Participation & Information will contribute to high-quality and inclusive implementation for this dimension of the Programme.

In addition to the four transversal priorities outlined above, the work programme 2025 will also support the following specific annual policy priorities defined for the 'Volunteering teams in high priority areas' in 2025, addressing policy areas of relevance to young people as highlighted in the recent Commission Communication on the European Year of Youth 2022. These priorities can also inspire projects in actions implemented at decentralised level.

- Relief for persons fleeing armed conflicts and other victims of natural or man-made disasters

The Corps can add significant value by contributing to the provision of relief and assistance to those whose lives, livelihoods and communities have been disrupted by the natural or man-made disasters, including armed conflicts. The importance of solidarity among individuals and communities, within or across borders, has become even more apparent with the Russian invasion of Ukraine and the resulting big inflow of displaced people into the EU, frequent occurrences of extreme weather events (e.g. floods and forest fires) as well as large-scale seismic events in certain countries. It is crucial to use the Corps' potential to implement community-based activities that foster sustained empathy and solidarity among young people and also facilitate exchange and cooperation between people from different backgrounds.

- Fostering positive learning experiences and outcomes for young people with fewer opportunities

The Corps can provide significant value by assisting children and young people from disadvantaged backgrounds, with disabilities or otherwise vulnerable groups with the attainment of adequate learning achievements. The European Year of Youth and the European Year of Skills have fostered the efforts in reaching out to all young people, including those with fewer opportunities. The Commission Communication "Putting people first, securing sustainable and inclusive growth, unlocking the potential of the EU’s outermost regions”³⁷ underlines that the European Solidarity Corps inclusion and diversity strategy helps young people from these regions to participate in the programme.

- Promoting waste management and recycling solutions

The Corps can provide significant value by promoting activities intended to raise awareness about environmental issues and stress the importance of waste segregation and recycling techniques. Involving local communities should be a priority in order to build positive and sustainable habits and ensure their longevity, which in turn would result in stronger community bonds, the sense of togetherness and shared responsibility. This priority is particularly relevant in the context of the municipal and packaging waste targets for 2025 introduced by the Waste Framework Directive 2008/98/EC.

While the specific priorities in this section formally apply to the direct management action “Volunteering teams in high priority areas”, all other actions of the European Solidarity Corps will continue to be mobilised to contribute to these areas as well.

Beyond the level of transversal and annual priorities, the activities of the European Solidarity Corps will strongly support action in the following areas:

European Solidarity Corps and the Legacy of the European Year of Youth

One of the transversal priorities of the European Solidarity Corps is to support participation in democratic life, promote common values and foster active citizenship. This was a key focus of the European Year of Youth 2022 which aimed to help young people to become active and engaged citizens, notably those that involve youth at risk of social exclusion and discrimination and those living in remote or EU outermost regions, including the Overseas Countries and Territories (OCTs).

Building on the achievements and contributing to the long-lasting legacy of the Year, the Programme will continue to empower young people and to encourage their participation in democratic life in 2025.

European Solidarity Corps and promotion of health and wellbeing

Across all its actions, the Corps aims to support activities related to prevention, promotion and support in the field of health, in line with the HealthyLifeStyle4All, with special focus on supporting vulnerable or disadvantaged population groups. Volunteers may be mobilised around major health challenges, especially regarding wellbeing, mental health, as well as policy priorities such as cancer prevention and care (Europe’s Beating Cancer Plan is a flagship initiative of the current Commission).

European Solidarity Corps and Innovation

Across all its actions, the Corps also strives to add value by promoting and supporting new waves of innovation by mobilising young people and organisations to contribute to awareness of and innovative solutions to a wide range of societal challenges, for example in the context of rural innovation ecosystems (rural youth depopulation, sustainable energy systems, health promotion and disease prevention etc.).

1.3. IMPLEMENTATION OF THE PROGRAMME

The next sections will highlight the main actions and initiatives that the Commission plans to carry out in 2025, in cooperation with the implementing structures of the Programme.

In 2025, the Commission is planning to launch a general call for proposals to cover actions under sections 1.3.1, 1.3.2 and 1.3.3.

In line with Article 29 of the European Solidarity Corps Regulation, the National Agencies can draw up funding strategies that clarify the conditions for activities considered as complementary to their national schemes.

A complete and more detailed description of the grants and procurements that will be awarded in 2025 under the European Solidarity Corps is available in Part II of this work programme.

1.3.1. Volunteering

Volunteering under the ‘participation of young people in solidarity activities’ strand will be carried out through individual volunteering activities or activities by volunteering teams in 2025.

Individual volunteering activities are carried out as voluntary unpaid activities for a period of up to 12 months. This provides young people with the opportunity to contribute to the daily work of organisations in solidarity-related activities to benefit the communities within which the activities are carried out, either in a country other than the country of residence of the participant (cross-border) or in the country of residence of the participant (in-country). Such volunteering must not substitute traineeships and/or jobs and must be based on a written volunteering agreement.

Activities by volunteering teams are designed to allow participants in the Corps carry out solidarity-related activities together (i.e. in teams) for a period of between 2 weeks and 2 months. Such activities could contribute especially to the inclusion of young people with fewer opportunities in the Corps and/or be justified due to their specific aims.

Main actions planned for 2025

The following actions will be implemented under the general call for proposals:

- The Volunteering Projects action will involve individual volunteering and/or activities by volunteering teams. Projects are expected to start in 2025 or at the beginning of 2026, with individual deployments beginning throughout the duration of the projects.
- Volunteering Teams in High-Priority Areas is an action implemented in direct management. Applications for funding under this action are expected to address one of the policy priorities “relief for persons fleeing armed conflicts and other victims of natural or man-made disasters”, "fostering positive learning experiences and outcomes for young people with fewer opportunities” and “promoting waste management and recycling solutions”, as defined in Section 1.2.2.

- The European Voluntary Humanitarian Aid Corps is an action implemented in direct management which allows young people aged 18-35 to implement activities designed to contribute to providing needs-based humanitarian aid aimed at preserving life, preventing and alleviating human suffering and maintaining human dignity, and to strengthen the capacity and resilience of vulnerable or disaster-affected communities. In the context of the continuing war of aggression against Ukraine - supported activities under this work programme could include for instance projects in support of refugees in third countries which are not directly part of the armed conflict but are affected by the resulting flows of refugees. Projects with volunteering activities in Ukraine itself, supporting for example reconstruction, would also be eligible, subject to the armed conflict having ceased by that time and the safety and security conditions allowing.

1.3.2. Solidarity projects

Solidarity projects aim to further foster the inclusiveness of the Corps and empower young people to address unmet societal challenges. They consist of bottom-up, solidarity-related activities, for a period of up to 12 months and are set up and carried out by groups of at least five Corps participants, addressing key challenges in their communities while presenting clear European added value. Such projects must not substitute traineeships and/or jobs.

Main actions planned for 2025

Under the general call for proposals, the Commission is planning to create opportunities for young people under the solidarity projects action. Awarded projects are expected to start in the course of 2025 or at the beginning of 2026.

1.3.3. Networking activities

Networking activities are national or transnational activities to support the Corps in fulfilling its objectives and priorities. This should be achieved by helping organisations to offer quality projects to an increasing number of participants, attracting newcomers - both young people and participating organisations - and providing opportunities to give feedback on solidarity-related activities. Such networking activities may also contribute to exchange of experiences and strengthening the sense of belonging among the individuals and entities participating in the Corps and thus support its wider positive impact.

Networking activities can consist of training, support and contact seminars, exchange of practices, establishment of alumni networks and post-placement guidance, evaluation and evidence-based analysis of results and impact. At direct management level, networking activities will include awareness raising activities and events, consultation fora, exchanges of practices and networking for participants and organisations prior to, during and after their participation, with a view to sustaining the spirit of solidarity and inspiring others.

Main actions planned for 2025

In 2025, the supported networking activities will include: organisation of trainings, support and contact seminars for potential participating organisations and participants; thematic activities to raise awareness and exchange of practices linked to the objectives, priority target groups and themes of the Programme; establishing and implementing community-building networks, alumni networks and post-placement guidance and support; evaluation and evidence-based analysis of results and impact.

Note: In addition to organising the networking activities described above, specific training for organisations and young persons involved in solidarity-related activities will be provided through the training and evaluation cycle for participants (i.e. young people) and participating organisations. Preparatory visits and complementary activities will also be supported in conjunction with volunteering and activities by volunteering teams.

1.3.4. Quality and support measures

The Corps aims to provide high-quality solidarity-related activities. Therefore, the following quality and support measures will be implemented:

- measures to ensure the quality and accessibility of volunteering or solidarity projects and equal opportunities for all young people in participating countries, including by taking into account the specific circumstances of participants in rural, remote, peripheral and less developed areas, outermost regions and oversea countries and territories. This includes offline and online training, language support, administrative support for participants and participating organisations, insurance, and support before and, where necessary, after the solidarity activity. It also includes the further use of Youthpass, which identifies and documents the competences acquired during solidarity-related activities;
- the development and maintenance of quality labels for entities willing to participate in providing volunteering opportunities for the Corps, to ensure compliance with the principles and requirements of the Corps;
- the activities of the European Solidarity Corps Resource Centre, which support and raise the implementation quality of the Corps' actions and address potential obstacles, with a view to ensuring a smooth and balanced experience for all participants and enhancing the validation of their learning outcomes. To take advantage of mutual overlaps in areas of common interest such as inclusion and diversity, the activities of the European Solidarity Corps Resource Centre will be complemented by the activities of the SALTO Resource Centres, financed jointly with the Erasmus+ programme;
- the establishment, maintenance and updating of the European Solidarity Corps Portal and other relevant online services, as well as the necessary IT support systems and web-based tools, taking into account the need to overcome the digital divide.

Main actions planned for 2025

In 2025, the 5th year of implementation of the 2021-2027 European Solidarity Corps, the quality and support measures will include the following actions:

- Quality Label: a Quality Label system is in place to ensure that participating organisations comply with the principles and requirements of the European Solidarity Corps regarding their responsibilities during all project stages. In general (with the exception of individuals or organisations participating in solidarity projects), obtaining a Quality Label is a prerequisite for an organisation to participate in any activities supported by the Corps although it will not automatically lead to funding. The type of Quality Label awarded will depend on the role an organisation wishes to perform in a project: acting as a host organisation and/or a support organisation.
- At indirect management level, since 2021 there has been a new quality label process, which enables easier access to funding for applicants. A new type of Quality Label was introduced, the Quality Label for lead organisations. As a result, the process of applying for grants was significantly streamlined, allowing organisations to spend less energy and resources at application stage and instead enabling them to focus on the quality of the activities and implementation. The application process will be managed by the National Agencies.
- At direct management level, EACEA will continue to manage the application process for the Quality Label for humanitarian aid volunteering. The procedure consists in validating the capacity of applicant organisations to safely engage young volunteers in humanitarian aid activities and certifying that they comply with the European Solidarity Corps programme quality standards.
- Insurance: complementary insurance will be offered to cover insurance-related expenses for participants in cross-border solidarity-related activities³⁸ that are not already covered by the European Health Insurance Card (EHIC) or other insurance schemes in which participants may be enrolled. Obtaining the EHIC prior to departure is mandatory in all cases, except in those where obtaining it proves impossible (due to national rules) or when it requires payment from the participant. Where the EHIC cannot be obtained for these reasons, primary coverage insurance may be proposed based upon due justification. A comprehensive primary coverage insurance is offered to participants under the European Voluntary Humanitarian Aid Corps³⁹.
- Certificate: at the end of the activity, participants will receive a certificate of participation, which must be issued by the organisation coordinating or providing the activity. To support the impact of European Solidarity Corps activities on the personal, educational, social, civic and professional development of participants, the competences (combination of knowledge, skills and attitudes) that are the non-formal and informal learning outcomes of these activities will be identified and documented, on a voluntary basis. For this, EU-level tools such as Youthpass and Europass can be used, in accordance with the specificities of the Corps' activities and national circumstances. Use of the Youthpass process and the certificate that identifies and documents non-formal and informal learning outcomes will be further developed for the Corps, and will be promoted and offered to participants (on a voluntary basis) and participating organisations (mandatory, insofar as the participant requests it).
- Language learning opportunities: participants in solidarity activities will benefit from online assessment and training through the fully revamped Online Language Support (OLS) tool. The tool aims to give users the possibility to choose the languages they want to study, as well as their main points of interest (learn more vocabulary, practice grammar, oral practice, etc.). To a certain extent, basic language online activities may also be made available for the benefit of the general public. Grants may be awarded to offer learning opportunities regarding languages and/or levels not covered by the OLS or to cater for specific needs of participants⁴⁰.

³⁸ With the exception of the European Voluntary Humanitarian Aid Corps

- General online training: open access training is available for young people registered in the European Solidarity Corps Portal and consists of a general induction course and a range of specific courses. It is focused on issues such as the missions of the Corps, ethics, integrity, roles and responsibilities of the participants, EU values, intercultural awareness, insurance, health and safety, etc.⁴¹
- Training for candidate volunteers of the European Voluntary Humanitarian Aid Corps: Apart from general online training for all young people registered in the European Solidarity Corps Portal, specific preparatory training (online and face-to-face) is provided to young people intending to participate in the European Voluntary Humanitarian Aid Corps. In order to be ready to contribute to supporting humanitarian aid operations in non-EU countries, candidate volunteers should be adequately prepared before starting their volunteering activity. Preparatory training for volunteers in humanitarian aid activities aims to improve their level of preparedness and specific knowledge about the action.
- European Youth Card: participants will be offered a Youth Card, which allows its holders to benefit from reduced fares when purchasing certain goods or services. The granting of this card to the participants as an additional service helps to promote Corps and EU youth policy⁴².
- European Solidarity Corps and SALTO Resource Centre: the European Solidarity Corps Resource Centre provides assistance to the implementing bodies, participating organisations and stakeholders, to raise the quality and impact of the Corps' actions and activities and to enhance the identification and documentation of competences acquired through solidarity-related activities. Existing services offered by the SALTO Resource Centres under Erasmus+ will also continue to assist the Corps in line with their thematic or regional areas of responsibility⁴³.
- European Solidarity Corps Portal: the IT tools developed specifically for the Corps between 2016 and 2020, particularly the European Solidarity Corps Portal and its different modules and affiliated IT tools, will be further developed to improve the experience for end-users. These developments will build on the role of the Portal as the one-stop shop for interested individuals and organisations regarding, inter alia, registration, identification and matching of profiles and opportunities, networking and virtual exchanges. This includes involving future participants and alumni, online training, certificates, language and post-placement support, as well as the development of other functionalities to support the young people and organisations who wish to participate, participate or have participated in solidarity activities, including in the field of humanitarian aid. Links between the Portal and the IT tools supporting project management will continue to be developed to further simplify management for beneficiaries. Similarly, interoperability between the Corps Portal and the Youthpass and Europass IT environments will be developed.

- Support for IT developments: In 2025, the Commission will continue to focus on improving the working environment (application forms, reporting forms, etc.) put in place during the previous programming period, adapting it to newly introduced action formats. The main objective will be to maximise synergies with existing Erasmus+ IT tools, support the new IT landscape (including the transfer of information between eGrant system and the Portal, where relevant), and carry out evolutionary maintenance. This will allow the IT infrastructure to provide a seamless user experience, adapting and properly aligning it to support all European Solidarity Corps processes, while ensuring simplification and user-friendliness. The ESC app will be further developed to improve access to the European Solidarity Corps Portal and facilitate exchange of experiences and inspirational ideas between current, former and future participants.⁴⁴
- Final evaluation 2018-2020 and interim evaluation 2021-2027 (ongoing action started in 2023): In accordance with the provisions of the legal base, Art 21(2), the Commission shall carry out an interim evaluation of the Programme, no later than 31 December 2024. That interim evaluation needs to be accompanied by a final evaluation of the 2018-2020 European Solidarity Corps Programme, which shall feed into the interim evaluation. The final evaluation, which will assess the efficiency, effectiveness and impact of the 2018-2020 programme and provide recommendations for the current programme is carried out as an independent evaluation, using a framework service contract. The results of the evaluation shall feed back into i.e. resource allocation proposals in the following years as well as into the impact assessment for the future programmes.

Note: In 2025, the European Solidarity Corps may contribute financially to the Commission's corporate communication, in accordance with Article 22(2) of the European Solidarity Corps Regulation. This contribution will cover corporate communication of the EU's political priorities to the extent that they are related to the general objective of the Corps.

Part II – Grants, Procurement and Other Actions

2.1. BUDGET LINES AND BASIC ACT

Budget line: 07 04 01

Basic act: European Solidarity Corps Regulation

2.2. METHODS OF IMPLEMENTATION

On the basis of the objectives set out in the European Solidarity Corps Regulation, the 2025 work programme will be implemented through:

Implementation mode	Amount EUR	Section
Actions implemented through indirect management	142 595 000	2.2.1
Grants and actions implemented through direct management	13 800 000
Procurement implemented through direct management	9 425 000	2.2.2
Experts and other actions	180 000	2.2.3
Total	166 000 000

2.2.1. Grants and actions implemented through direct and indirect management

To achieve the objectives and policy priorities announced in Sections 1.1.1 and 1.2.2 of Part I of this work programme, general and specific calls for proposals are published by the Commission or by the Executive Agency in accordance with Article 189(1) of the Financial Regulation.

Each year, after adoption of the financing decision, based on Article 110 of the Financial Regulation, a general call for proposals is published. The general call for proposals for the implementation of the European Solidarity Corps includes the Programme Guide. The Programme Guide aims to assist all those interested in developing projects within the Programme. It helps them understand the objectives and the actions of the Programme. It also gives detailed information on what are the minimum requirements for applying and what level of grant is offered. Finally, it informs about the grant selection procedure as well as the rules applying to successful applicants that become beneficiaries of an EU grant. The Programme Guide provides also detailed information as regards the eligibility, selection and award criteria for each type of project to be implemented. The quality of the proposals will be assessed on the basis of the award criteria published per action in the guide.

Actions will be implemented both in direct and indirect management. All actions implemented through the National Agencies (marked as NA), are to be considered as indirect management. Grants through direct management will be those awarded by EAC or EACEA.

Some grants will be awarded without a call for proposals in accordance with indents (c), (d) and (f) of Article 195 of the Financial Regulation.

The calls for proposals that will be published or launched to select actions for co-financing in 2025, as well as the grants awarded under specific conditions without issuing a call for proposals, are specified further in Part II of this work programme.

For the beneficiaries of all grants awarded under the European Solidarity Corps, the following selection criteria will apply:

Selection criteria

Organisations, institutions and groups applying for any grant under the European Solidarity Corps, as detailed further in Part II of this work programme, will be assessed against the following selection criteria:

- Financial capacity: applicants must have stable and sufficient sources of funding to maintain their regular activity throughout the period during which the action is being carried out or the year for which the grant is awarded, to participate in its funding. The verification of financial capacity will not be done for public bodies, including Member State organisations, public legal entities, institutions and organisations in the fields of education and training, youth and sport that have received over 50% of their annual revenue from public sources over the last two years and for international organisations.
- Operational capacity: applicants must have the necessary professional competences and qualifications to carry out the proposed action. Applicants must have the know-how, qualifications and resources to successfully implement the projects and contribute their share (including sufficient experience in projects of comparable size and nature).

2.2.2. Procurement

This work programme also includes actions that will be implemented by public procurement procedures (via calls for tenders or the use of service or framework contracts) (Article 164 of the Financial Regulation). The amounts reserved, together with the indicative number of contracts and the timeframe for launching the procurement procedures, are indicated in Table 2 in Part III, Section 2 of this work programme.

For actions implemented through framework contracts (FWC), in case existing FWC cannot be used, the Commission will consider publishing calls for tender to award new FWC.

2.2.3. Experts and other actions

This work programme includes costs related to the experts involved in assessing requests for a Quality Label or funding.

Insofar as participating organisations are concerned, a Quality Label process is in place for applicants (under ‘quality and support measures’) to ensure the general quality framework. Holding the relevant Quality Label is a pre-requisite to be eligible to receive a grant for most solidarity-related activities⁴⁵ and/or to participate in many other actions of the Corps.

⁴⁵ With the exception of grants concerning solidarity projects, to which the obligation for applicants for funding to have a relevant Quality Label does not apply.

2.3. SUPPORTED ACTIVITIES

2.3.1. Expected results of supported activities

In line with the general and specific objectives and in accordance with the monitoring and evaluation framework⁴⁶ of the European Solidarity Corps, the actions supported by the initiative are expected to bring positive and long-lasting effects to the participants and participating organisations involved, as well as the communities in which these actions take place.

For individual participants, solidarity-related activities supported in 2025, and any other supported activities related to them (e.g. quality and support measures), are meant to produce the main following outcomes:

- improved skills and competences for personal, educational, social, civic, cultural and professional development;
- more active participation in democratic life and in society in general;
- enhanced employability and transition to the labour market;
- increased sense of initiative and social entrepreneurship;
- increased self-empowerment and self-esteem;
- improved foreign language competences;
- enhanced intercultural awareness;
- better awareness of the European project, its foundations, history, functioning and EU values;
- increased motivation for further engagement in the solidarity sector;
- increased awareness of humanitarian aid-related themes and values.

Supported solidarity-related activities are also expected to produce the following outcomes on participating organisations:

- increased capacity to operate at EU/international level;
- innovative and improved ways of operating towards their target groups;
- greater understanding and responsiveness to social, linguistic and cultural diversity;
- more modern, dynamic, committed and professional environment inside the organisations.

For communities where the supported solidarity-related activities are implemented, the following outcomes are expected:

⁴⁶ Commission delegated Regulation {C(2023) 6085 final}
<https://eur-lex.europa.eu/legal-content/EN/TXT/PDF/?uri=CELEX:52023SC0297>

- increased ability to address societal challenges;
- greater understanding and responsiveness to social, linguistic and cultural diversity;
- increased capacity building among local organisations and local communities in third countries.

In the long run, the combined effect of supported solidarity-related activities is expected to have an impact on the operations of a large number of stakeholders in participating countries.

Specifically in 2025 and in relation with the ongoing Russian invasion of Ukraine, a number of activities supported by the European Solidarity Corps will result in direct relief and improved capacity of communities to address needs arising from the consequences of the aggression, including refugee relief, assistance, support and integration.

2.3.2. Actions implemented under indirect management

This section of the work programme describes the actions implemented by the National Agencies (NA) of the European Solidarity Corps Programme. The budget implementation tasks will be entrusted to the National Agencies via the conclusion of Contribution Agreements under indirect management mode in accordance with Articles 62 (1)(c), 110 (3)(f) and 157 (1) of the Financial Regulation. The country distribution of the budget (i.e. amounts entrusted to National Agencies in individual countries) is provided in Part III of this work programme.

The expected results for the actions described in this section are indicated in Section 2.3.1 above. More specific indications for these actions concerning 1) the main expected outputs, 2) the implementation mode, 3) and the estimated amount available are indicated in the programming tables in Part III, Section 2 of this work programme.

2.3.2.1 Grants awarded by means of a general call for proposals (European Solidarity Corps Programme Guide)

Volunteering Projects

Index references in budget table (WPI): 1.00

The financial envelope by country is indicated in table 3 of Part III.

Furthermore, in addition to implementing the budget foreseen in table 3, the European Solidarity Corps will explore the possibility to continue the cooperation with the Horizon Europe Programme in 2025, in order to facilitate a financial contribution of Horizon Europe to Volunteering Projects. More specifically, the contribution of the Horizon Europe Programme could be earmarked for Volunteering Projects supporting the EU Missions⁴⁷ and their key strategies.

⁴⁷ Adaptation to Climate Change, Cancer, Restore our Ocean and Waters by 2030, 100 Climate-Neutral and Smart Cities by 2030, A Soil Deal for Europe

This action provides young people with the opportunity to contribute, with their motivation and commitment, to the daily work of organisations active in solidarity-related fields by offering them volunteering opportunities.

These volunteering opportunities can be offered through Volunteering Projects. Projects are implemented through an appropriate mix of eligible activities, particularly individual volunteering and activities by volunteering teams.

Individual volunteering is a solidarity-related activity carried out as a voluntary unpaid activity for a period of up to 12 months. This provides young people with the opportunity to contribute to the daily work of organisations engaged in solidarity-related activities to benefit the communities in which the activities are carried out. Such volunteering must not substitute traineeships and/or jobs and must be based on a written volunteering agreement.

Activities by volunteering teams are solidarity-related activities allowing teams of European Solidarity Corps participants to volunteer together for a period between 2 weeks and 2 months. Such solidarity-related activities could contribute especially to the inclusion of young people with fewer opportunities in the Corps and/or be justified due to the specific aims of the solidarity-related activities.

Individual volunteering and/or activities by volunteering teams aim to:

- address clearly defined unmet societal challenges;
- promote solidarity across Member States;
- enable the young volunteer(s) to gain skills and competences which are useful for their personal, educational, social and professional development;
- provide tangible benefits to the communities within which the activities are carried out;
- ensure a direct contact between the participant and the beneficiaries of the solidarity-related activities, to enable the young volunteer to gain skills that are useful for their educational and social development;
- reach out to young people with fewer opportunities, including young persons with disabilities, refugees, asylum seekers and migrants, as well as members of vulnerable groups, ethnic minorities and vulnerable communities;
- respect the principles set out in the EU Guidelines for the Promotion and Protection of the Rights of the Child (2017) and in Article 9 of the UN Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities;
- promote diversity, intercultural and inter-religious dialogue - and the EU values of human dignity, freedom, equality and respect for human rights, including the rights of persons belonging to minorities - as well as projects enhancing media literacy, critical thinking and a sense of initiative among young people;

- reinforce the capacities and international scope of the participating organisations;
- raise participants' awareness and understanding of other cultures and countries, offering them the opportunity to build networks of international contacts, to actively participate in society and to develop a sense of European citizenship and identity.

In line with the conditions of the call for proposals, and depending on the format of activities for which financial support is requested (and without prejudice to the definition of individual eligible activities), supported activities may be:

- cross-border activities, i.e. activities taking place in a different country to the country of origin of the participant(s); or
- in-country activities, e.g. to encourage and facilitate the participation of young people with fewer opportunities, to provide opportunities where national schemes do not exist, or to cater for priorities identified at European level within the framework of the European Solidarity Corps initiative.

Types of applicants targeted by this action: any public or private entity, whether non-profit or profit making, local, regional, national or international, legally established in an EU Member State, a third country associated to the Programme or international organisations holding a valid Quality Label for lead organisation at the grant application deadline. Participating organisations may be from an EU Member State or third country associated to the Programme and may also be from a third country not associated to the Programme⁴⁸ and must hold a valid Quality Label for host and/or support role at the latest at the start of the activities.

Only organisations holding a Quality Label for lead organisations may apply and receive grants to implement projects focused on volunteering opportunities.

Projects with exclusively in-country volunteering activities must involve at least one Quality Label organisation. Projects including individual cross-border volunteering activities must involve a Quality Label host organisation, and at least one Quality Label support organisation from each of the countries where the participants are legally residing. Volunteering teams require at least one (host or support) Quality Label organisation.

Against this background, the eligibility of legal entities from third countries not associated to the Programme, as foreseen by Article 14.2 of the European Solidarity Corps Regulation, is in the Union's interest.

Solidarity projects

Index references in budget table (WPI): 3.00

⁴⁸ See list of countries mentioned under section 1.1.2.

The financial envelope by country is indicated in Table 3 of Part III.

Solidarity projects are non-profit solidarity activities, for a period of up to 12 months, that are set up and carried out by groups of at least five Corps participants, to address key challenges in their communities while presenting clear European added value. Such solidarity projects must not substitute traineeships and/or jobs.

Projects under this action promote a spirit of initiative, social commitment and active citizenship and mainly aim to:

- provide young people with easily accessible opportunities to engage in solidarity-related activities;
- foster active participation and social commitment by young people carrying out the project;
- help address concrete, unmet societal challenges and strengthen communities;
- help enhance the personal, educational, social and civic development of young people;
- have an impact on the local community by addressing local issues or common challenges and developing local opportunities, particularly in communities located in rural, isolated or marginalised areas and border regions, including the EU outermost regions;
- promote environmentally sustainable and responsible behaviour among young people implementing the project and other participants in project activities, raising their awareness of the importance of acting to reduce or compensate for the environmental footprint of activities;
- respect the principles set out in the EU Guidelines for the Promotion and Protection of the Rights of the Child (2017) and in Article 9 of the UN Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities.

Type of applicants targeted by this action: groups of minimum 5 young people aged between 18 and 30 years old, who are legally residing in one and the same EU Member State or a third country associated to the Programme and have registered themselves in the European Solidarity Corps Portal. Any public or private body, legally established in an EU Member State or third country associated to the Programme, may apply on behalf of the group that will implement the project.

2.3.2.2 Other actions under indirect management

a) Quality Label (indirect management)

Index reference in budget table (WPI): 5.14

A Quality Label process is in place to ensure a general quality framework for most activities (in practice: volunteering, activities by volunteering teams, i.e. any projects involving one or more of these activities) that may be carried out with the support of the European Solidarity Corps. Obtaining a Quality Label is a pre-condition for organisations to:

- apply for funding;
- participate in the volunteering activities supported under the European Solidarity Corps.

There are three types of Quality Label, depending on the role(s) that the organisation wishes to play in the project:

- Host role;
- Support role;
- Quality Label for Lead organisations.

Award of a Quality Label for host or support role does not provide automatic access to funding. The Quality Label will be valid for the duration of the programming period (2021-2027) and subject to periodical reassessment.

Type of applicants targeted by this action: for the Quality Label for lead, host and support organisations, any public or private entity, whether non-profit or profit making, local, regional, national or international, legally established in an EU Member State or a third country associated to the Programme or any international organisation. They can have a host or support role or the combination of both. Organisations from a third country not associated to the Programme can have either a host or support role or both.

The participation in a host and/or support role of legal entities from third countries not associated to the Programme, as foreseen by Article 14.2 of the European Solidarity Corps Regulation, is in the Union’s interest.

b) Transnational and national Networking Activities

Index reference in budget table (WPI): 4.10

The Networking Activities aim to bring added value and increased quality to the overall implementation of the European Solidarity Corps and contribute to increasing its impact at systemic level.

In 2025, Networking Activities consist of transnational and national:

- training, support and contact seminars for potential organisations and participants, particularly a networking activities seminar to exchange practices and develop quality in Networking Activities;
- thematic activities to raise awareness and exchanges of practices linked to the objectives, priority target groups and themes of the Programme;
- establishment and implementation of alumni networks and post-placement guidance and support;
- evaluation and evidence-based analysis of results and impact.

Networking Activities are crucial support activities targeting potential beneficiaries and potential participants, practitioners and stakeholders of the European Solidarity Corps Programme. Through Networking Activities, the National Agencies provide trainings, thematic and research activities, support and contact seminars, which are key to ensure quality implementation of the Programme and to build closer links with the relevant elements of policy development.

Implementation	Indicative amount (EUR)
NA	7 000 000

c) Activities of the European Solidarity Corps Resource Centres

Index reference in budget table (WPI): 5.50

The Resource Centres are part of the quality and support measures mentioned in the Regulation establishing the European Solidarity Corps. They constitute additional entrusted tasks to be performed by designated National Agencies to support the development, implementation and quality of actions under the European Solidarity Corps. The European Solidarity Corps benefits from the already well-established network of Resources Centres under the Erasmus+ programme and a dedicated European Solidarity Corps Resource Centre.

SALTO-YOUTH Resource Centres are structures mainly supported through the Erasmus+ Programme aiming to improve the quality of projects in the field of youth. Through their thematic (participation, information, inclusion, diversity, training and recognition) or geographical (Eastern Partnership countries and Russia, Southern Mediterranean, Western Balkans) focus, they provide resources, information and training in specific areas for National Agencies and other actors involved in the youth field and foster the recognition of non-formal and informal learning. The SALTO resource centres also offer support and develop trainings, tools and resources for the European Solidarity Corps.

The European Solidarity Corps Resource Centre assists the implementing bodies, participating organisations and young people taking part in the European Solidarity Corps, as well as stakeholders, to raise the quality and impact of its implementation in all participating countries, and to enhance the identification and documentation of competences acquired through the activities.

Support for the European Solidarity Resource Centres is identified in Article 5(2)(d) of the European Solidarity Corps Regulation.

The budget implementation tasks will be entrusted to National Agencies via the conclusion of Contribution Agreements under indirect management mode in accordance with Article 62 (1)(c), 110 (3)(f), 154 and 157 (1) of the Financial Regulation.

NA (SALTO Resource Centres)	710 000

d) Specific training for participants, organisations and mentors in solidarity-related activities (training and evaluation cycle; indirect management)

Index reference in budget table (WPI): 5.40

The training aims to improve the level of preparedness of young people participating in cross-border solidarity-related activities and consists of the following modules/activities:

- pre-departure training for volunteers ensures that, by the time they leave, participants are adequately prepared for their upcoming activities and equipped with practical and technical information on matters such as insurance, visa, pocket money and working hours, etc.
- on-arrival training introduces the volunteers to the host country, helps to adapt to cultural and personal challenges and allows getting to know each other and build a network.
- mid-term evaluation allows participants in long-term volunteering to assess their experience up to that point and to reflect on the activities, role and support of the host organisation and on their own contribution.
- annual event is an opportunity to bring together former, current and potential participants.

The training also supports organisations with an objective to provide training to newly awarded Quality Label organisations on the core features of the Programme.

The training provides mentors with guidance on how to offer support and reinforced mentorship to the participants involved in volunteering activities.

The budget implementation tasks will be entrusted to National Agencies via the conclusion of Contribution Agreements under indirect management mode in accordance with Articles 62 (1)(c), 110 (3)(f), 154 and 157 (1) of the Financial Regulation.

2.3.3. Actions implemented under direct management

The expected results for the actions described in this section are indicated in Section 2.3.1 above. More specific indications for these actions concerning 1) the main expected outputs, 2) the implementation mode and 3) the estimated amount available are indicated in the programming tables in Part III, Section 2 of this work programme.

a) *Volunteering Teams in High-Priority Areas*⁴⁹

Index references in budget table (WPI): 1.30

This action provides young people with the opportunity to contribute, with their motivation and commitment, to the daily work of organisations active in solidarity-related fields by offering them volunteering opportunities.

These volunteering opportunities will be offered through Volunteering Teams in High-Priority Areas. Activities by volunteering teams are solidarity-related activities allowing teams of European Solidarity Corps participants to volunteer together for a period between 2 weeks and 2 months. Such solidarity-related activities are justified due to their specific aims.

Activities by volunteering teams in high-priority areas will aim to:

- address clearly defined unmet societal challenges in the area of either “relief for persons fleeing armed conflicts and other victims of natural or man-made disasters” or ⁴⁹ In 2025 these areas correspond to the policy priorities of “relief for persons fleeing armed conflicts and other victims of natural or man-made disasters”, “fostering positive learning experiences and outcomes for young people with fewer opportunities” and “promoting waste management and recycling solutions”, as defined in Section 1.2.2.

""fostering positive learning experiences and outcomes for young people with fewer opportunities", as defined in Section 1.2.2;

- promote solidarity across the participating countries;
- enable the young volunteer(s) to gain skills and competences which are useful for their personal, educational, social and professional development;
- provide tangible benefits to the communities within which the activities are carried out;
- ensure a direct contact between the participant and the beneficiaries of the solidarity-related activities, to enable the young volunteer to gain skills that are useful for their educational and social development;
- reach out to young people with fewer opportunities, including refugees, asylum seekers and migrants, as well as members of vulnerable groups, ethnic minorities and vulnerable communities;
- promote diversity, intercultural and inter-religious dialogue - and the EU values of human dignity, freedom, equality and respect for human rights, including the rights of persons belonging to minorities - as well as projects enhancing media literacy, critical thinking and a sense of initiative among young people;
- respect the principles set out in the EU Guidelines for the Promotion and Protection of the Rights of the Child (2017) and in Article 9 of the UN Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities;
- reinforce the capacities and international scope of the participating organisations;
- raise participants' awareness and understanding of other cultures and countries, offering them the opportunity to build networks of international contacts, to actively participate in society and to develop a sense of European citizenship and identity.

In line with the conditions of the call for proposals, and depending on the format of activities for which financial support is requested (and without prejudice to the definition of individual eligible activities), supported activities may be:

- cross-border activities, i.e. activities taking place in a different country to the country of origin of the participant(s); or
- in-country activities, e.g. to encourage and facilitate the participation of young people with fewer opportunities, to provide opportunities where national schemes do not exist, or to cater for priorities identified at European level within the framework of the European Solidarity Corps initiative.

Types of applicants targeted by this action: any public or private entity, whether non-profit or profit making, local, regional, national or international, legally established in an EU Member State, a third country associated to the Programme or international organisations holding a valid Quality Label for lead organisation at the grant application deadline. Participating organisations (host and/or support role) may be from an EU Member State, a third country associated to the Programme and may also be from a third country not associated to the Programme⁵⁰. b) European Voluntary Humanitarian Aid Corps

This action provides young people aged 18 to 35 years old with the opportunity to participate in volunteering activities, aiming at supporting humanitarian aid operations. Subject to an end to the ongoing war and to adequate guarantees of safety and security of the volunteers, this could include supporting such operations in the aftermath of the Russia-Ukraine conflict and deploying young volunteers in the rebuilding in Ukraine. These activities should:

- contribute to a needs-based humanitarian response and be guided by the European Consensus on Humanitarian Aid⁵¹. International humanitarian law and human rights law should be promoted;
- be carried out in compliance with the humanitarian principles of humanity, neutrality, impartiality and independence, as well as with the "do no significant harm" principle;
- respond to the humanitarian needs of local communities identified in cooperation with humanitarian and other relevant partners within the hosting country or region;
- be planned on the basis of risk assessments and undertaken in a way that ensures that there is a high level of safety and security for volunteers;
- where relevant, facilitate the transition from the humanitarian response to long-term sustainable and inclusive development;
- facilitate the active involvement of local staff and volunteers from the countries and communities where they are implemented;
- respect the principles set out in the EU Guidelines for the Promotion and Protection of the Rights of the Child (2017) and in Article 9 of the UN Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities;
- strive to contribute to enhanced effectiveness and efficiency of the EU humanitarian aid, in line with the Good Humanitarian Donorship principles;

⁵¹ https://ec.europa.eu/echo/files/aid/countries/factsheets/thematic/consensus_en.pdf

- contribute to an adequate humanitarian response strengthening the gender perspective in Union humanitarian aid policy, promoting adequate humanitarian responses to the specific needs of women and men of all ages and seek to involve women and groups and networks of women. These actions should take into account the needs and capacities of those in the most vulnerable situations, including women and children, and those most at risk, e.g. members of vulnerable groups, ethnic minorities and vulnerable communities ;
- contribute to efforts to strengthen local preparedness or the response to humanitarian crises.

In practice, the following activities are supported under the European Voluntary Humanitarian Aid Corps:

- Individual volunteering implementing a solidarity activity in the field of humanitarian aid that can be “long term”, with a duration of 2 to 12 months.
- Volunteering teams implementing a solidarity activity in the field of humanitarian aid of 5 to 40 participants coming from at least two different countries who volunteer together for a period between 2 weeks and 2 months.
- Preparatory meetings (before the deployment) and complementary activities (in parallel to the volunteering activity) as side activities aiming at ensuring high quality and increased impact at local/regional level.

Type of applicants targeted for a support role by this action: any public or private entity, whether non-profit or profit making, local, regional, national or international, legally established in an EU Member State, a third country associated to the Programme or international organisations. Participating organisations (host role) must be based in a third country not associated to the Programme where humanitarian aid activities and operations take place and where there are no ongoing international or non-international armed conflicts. All participating organisations must hold a valid Quality Label for Humanitarian Aid volunteering at the application deadline and for the entire duration of the project. Eligible participating organisations are expected to form a consortium.

The participation of legal entities from third countries not associated to the Programme in a host role for humanitarian volunteering is indispensable to implement this action, therefore it is in the Union’s interest as foreseen by Article 14.2 of the European Solidarity Corps Regulation.

2.3.3.2 Grants awarded by exception to calls for proposals (Article 195 of the Financial Regulation)

European Solidarity Corps Youth Card

Index references in budget table (WPI): 5.60

European Solidarity Corps participants in activities entailing mobility are offered a Youth Card, which allows its holders to benefit from reduced fares when purchasing certain goods or services subject to availability in participating countries. The granting of this card is provided as an additional service to participants. It also contributes to the promotion of the European Solidarity Corps and of EU youth policy by providing young people access to quality youth information through the organisation of awards ceremonies and events.

The objective is to renew the agreement between the Commission and the EYCA (European Youth Card Association), the only body that issues such a Youth Card and thus has a de facto monopoly within the meaning of Article 195 (c) of the Financial Regulation with a two-years grant, covering 2025 and 2026.

This action will be implemented by the Executive Agency.

2.3.3.3 Procurements

a) Networking and communication activities and events organised at European level

Index reference in budget table (WPI): 4.20

The networking activities aim to bring added value and increased quality to the overall implementation of the European Solidarity Corps and so contribute to increasing its impact at systemic level. In addition, communication activities at European level shall enhance the engagement of young people and organisations in accessible and high-quality solidarity activities, as a means to strengthen cohesion, solidarity, democracy, European identity and active citizenship in the Union and beyond. The communication activities will follow the provisions laid down in Article 22 of the European Solidarity Corps Regulation, regarding information, communication and dissemination.

Networking activities and events organised at European level consist of:

- networking activities and events aimed at awareness raising, further dissemination and strengthening the effectiveness and broader impact of the European Solidarity Corps initiative;
- consultation fora to gather and assess the perspective of stakeholders on the implementation of the initiative;
- networking activities and events aimed at exchanging practices, awareness raising and community building for participants and organisations, including through the European Solidarity Corps Portal.

Implementation	Indicative amount (EUR)
EAC	500 000

b) European Solidarity Corps Insurance

Index reference in budget table (WPI): 5.20

The European Solidarity Corps insurance scheme aims to cover the risks run by the young people participating in Corps activities as volunteers in cross-border activities. Every participant must be enrolled in the European Solidarity Corps Insurance scheme foreseen by the European Solidarity Corps Programme. For participants in solidarity-related activities' strand, the offered insurance should complement coverage by the EHIC and/or national social security systems and other insurance schemes in which participants may be enrolled. Those participants who are not eligible for the EHIC will be entitled to receive full coverage through the insurance provided by the European Commission. In cases in which obtaining the EHIC proves impossible (due to national rules), or when it requires the participant to pay, primary coverage insurance may be proposed based upon due justification. National Agencies must promote the fact that being in possession of an EHIC (when possible) and European Solidarity Corps Insurance is mandatory for all participants in cross-border activities.

A comprehensive primary coverage insurance is offered to participants under the European Voluntary Humanitarian Aid Corps⁵².

The organisations are responsible for the enrolment of the participant(s) to the insurance scheme. This enrolment must be done before the departure of the participant(s) and cover the duration of the activity.

The multiannual framework contract in place following a procurement procedure provides an insurance scheme for participants in European Solidarity Corps projects selected in the programming period (2021-2027), including volunteers in humanitarian aid activities.

c) Online language support (OLS)

Index reference in budget table (WPI): 5.31

The scheme for systematic language support offers online assessment and training to volunteers.

The tool aims to give users the possibility to choose the languages they want to study (e.g. the language of the host country, the language of the activity), as well as their main points of interest (learn more vocabulary, practice grammar, oral practice, etc.). To a certain extent, basic language online activities may also be made available for the benefit of the general public.

d) Training for candidate volunteers of the European Voluntary Humanitarian Aid Corps (direct management)

Index reference in budget table (WPI): 5.32

Specific preparatory training (online and face-to-face) will continue to be provided to young people participating in the European Voluntary Humanitarian Aid Corps. Indeed, in order to be ready to support humanitarian aid operations in non-EU countries, candidate volunteers must be adequately prepared before the start of their volunteering activity. Preparatory training for volunteers in humanitarian aid activities aims to improve their level of preparedness and specific knowledge about the action.

In 2025, the preparatory training for volunteers in humanitarian aid activities is provided through specific contracts under a framework contract.

e) Information and networking activities focused on the Quality Label, Volunteering Teams in High-Priority Areas and the European Voluntary Humanitarian Aid Corps

Index reference in budget table (WPI): 5.11

Information and networking activities aim to increase the capacity of potential participating organisations to respect the general quality framework.

In 2025, these activities will consist mainly of:

- thematic activities to raise awareness and exchange of practices linked to the Quality Label, i.e. activities dedicated to helping potential participating organisations to understand their roles and responsibilities, the key features of the Programme (such as specific support for young people with fewer opportunities, EU level recognition tools, mentoring etc.) and how to develop quality projects.

- thematic activities and events to raise awareness and exchange of practices linked to the Volunteering Teams in High-Priority Areas;
- information fora to provide advice and assistance to potential applicants in the Volunteering Teams in High-Priority Areas Action;
- thematic activities and events to raise awareness about the European Voluntary Humanitarian Aid Corps;

f) European Solidarity Corps Portal

Index reference in budget table (WPI): 5.70

The European Solidarity Corps Portal, which is integrated into the European Youth Portal, offers information on solidarity-related opportunities across Europe and beyond. It provides young people with information about the Corps and access to organisations which have received the Quality Label and are registered in the Portal. Furthermore, the Portal and its integrated tools (PASS) enable registered organisations (holders of the Quality Label) to search for and contact suitable candidates for volunteering activities that they wish to offer.

The Portal allows young people to follow online training, to access other services and, importantly, to build a community of young people sharing the common European values. The Portal will be integrated into all front- and back-end processes of the Corps. To further improve access to the European Solidarity Corps Portal and facilitate exchange of experiences and inspirational ideas between current, former and future participants, the existing mobile application will be further developed and enhanced with new features.

Activities to disseminate and exploit results are also envisaged, linked to the European Solidarity Corps Portal's role as an information hub.

g) Support for IT developments

Index reference in budget table (WPI): 5.65

The European Solidarity Corps Programme’s allocated credits for IT tools and systems in 2025 will allow the Commission to support the IT landscape and simultaneously cover the expenses related to the existing IT tools (evolutionary maintenance).

This will mainly concern IT tools and systems destined to be directly used by, or to benefit directly, multiple categories of external stakeholders, including applicants, beneficiaries, National Agencies, National Authorities and participants in general, such as young people, in line with Programme objectives. These include the IT systems on indirect management PMM - Project Management Module, BM - Beneficiary Module, AF - Application Forms, management reporting (DAP-Data Analytics Platform), dissemination platform (VALOR), as well as supporting the direct management IT landscape (including the transfer of information between the eGrant system and the European Youth Portal, where relevant) etc.

2.3.3.5 Other actions

Quality Label (direct management)

Index reference in budget table (WPI): 5.13

A Quality Label system is in place to ensure the general quality framework for humanitarian aid related activities. Organisations may apply for a Quality Label for humanitarian aid related activities. Obtaining the Quality Label is a pre-condition to:

- apply for funding under the humanitarian aid action;
- participate in the humanitarian aid related activities organised under the European Solidarity Corps.

Type of applicants targeted by this action: for the Quality Label for support role any public or private entity, whether non-profit or profit making, local, regional, national or international, legally established in an EU Member State or a third country associated to the Programme or any international organisation. Participating organisations with a host role must also be based in a third country not associated to the Programme where humanitarian aid activities and operations take place and where there are no ongoing international or non-international armed conflicts. All participating organisations must hold a valid Quality Label for Humanitarian Aid volunteering at the application deadline and for the entire duration of the project. Eligible participating organisations are expected to form a consortium.

The participation of legal entities from third countries not associated to the Programme in a host role for humanitarian volunteering is indispensable to implement this action, therefore it is in the Union's interest as foreseen by Article 14.2 of the European Solidarity Corps Regulation.

Index reference in budget table (WPI): 6.00

Financial support to National Agencies is identified in Article 25 paragraph 2, point (b) of the Regulation. Financial support is provided to National Agencies as a contribution to their management costs linked to the implementation of the tasks that will be entrusted to them via the conclusion of Contribution Agreements under indirect management mode in accordance with Articles 62 (1)(c), 110 (3)(f) and 157 (1) of the Financial Regulation.

3.2. DISTRIBUTION OF ESTIMATED APPROPRIATIONS BY ACTIONS – BUDGET AND PROGRAMMING TABLES

The budget and programming tables below show the distribution of available appropriations among the actions funded by budget line 07 04 01, taking into account the amounts adopted in the EU-Budget.

The overall allocation of funds to the Programme is established by Article 11 of the Regulation. It should be noted, however, that in line with the Regulation, these percentages of the total budget are fixed for the entire programming period 2021-2027. Therefore, for a given year of implementation, they do not need to be respected in full (e.g. because of reprogramming or a change in political priorities). However, the trend will have to be respected for the overall duration of the Programme.

3.3. BREAKDOWN BY COUNTRY OF THE FUNDS ALLOCATED TO THE NATIONAL AGENCIES

The 4 criteria used for the allocation of funds for the EU contribution to grant support indirectly managed by the National Agencies are the following:

- a) Country Population;
- b) Cost of Living;
- c) Distance between capitals;
- d) Performance.

The relative weight of the criteria is calculated as follows:

Minimum allocation of 20% of the budget for each action is applied. The criteria a) to c) account for the allocation of 70% of funds. The criterion of past performance d) accounts for the remaining 10%. Therefore, the country allocation and, more specifically, the level of contribution and grant agreements is based on the figures resulting from the above-mentioned criteria.

In order to guarantee that there are no excessive imbalances in the annual budget allocated to countries from one year to another, a correction mechanism is applied to the allocations resulting from the pure application of the above-mentioned criteria.

The Commission may also decide to set a minimum and a maximum percentage for increases in the management fees.
