CITY GUIDE

THE CITY

Salzburg, Austria's fourth-largest city and a UNESCO World Heritage site, is a stunning alpine destination known as the "City of Mozart" and the backdrop for The Sound of Music. A well-balanced mix between a city and nature, Salzburg will make you dream with its music past, its delicious desserts and its beauty!

the beginning of your adventure!

WILLKOMMEN!

LET'S START WITH A BIT OF SIGHTSEEING

The city's landmark? Without a doubt: Hohensalzburg Fortress! It overlooks the rooftops of the Baroque Old Town and looks almost like something out of a movie.

The fortress built in 1077 and has witnessed centuries of history. Today, it is one of the largest fully preserved castle complexes in Europe.

What many people don't know: The fortress was never conquered by enemies, it was simply too well-fortified. And if you don't feel like walking all the way up, you can take the Fortress Railway up in total comfort.

Once you reach the top, you'll find a spectacular view of Salzburg, perfect for photos and for marveling at the scenery.

FUN FACTS

The Sound of Music

The film “The Sound of Music” made Salzburg famous around the world. Even though many locals rarely watched it in the past. It was filmed right in and around Salzburg, which makes the city a real magnet for fans to this day. Many people travel there specifically to follow in the footsteps of the famous scenes. Specially organized “Sound of Music” tours give you the chance to experience the most famous filming locations firsthand.

Mozart

In Salzburg, there's one name you simply can't avoid: Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart. Whether it's Mozartplatz, Mozarthaus, or Mozartsteg, the city's most famous son is truly everywhere. Mozart was born right here in 1756, and his birthplace on Getreidegasse is now one of Austria's most visited museums.

And then, of course, there are the legendary Mozartkugeln: marzipan with pistachios, coated in nougat and dark chocolate. Sounds good? Tastes even better! You can get the originals at Café Fürst.

Salzburger Nockerl

Salzburger Nockerl are a true highlight of Salzburg! Super fluffy, sweet, and almost like a cloud. They're made from eggs, sugar, and flour and are freshly baked in the oven. They're often dusted with powdered sugar and sometimes served with lingonberries, making them the perfect combination of sweet and fruity. Their distinctive shape is no accident: the three “hills” are meant to represent Salzburg's snow-capped local mountains (Mönchsberg, Kapuzinerberg and Gaisberg).

Alm Canal

The Alm Canal once supplied Salzburg with fresh water straight from the Alps. Today, it's mainly a green and laid-back spot for young people in Salzburg: there are plenty of places where you can go for a swim or cool off for free. Do you love surfing? No problem at all, because this famous spot even has that to offer. At the Almwelle near Heinrich-Meder-Weg, you can show off your skills. Sound pretty cool? It is! But be careful: the water is freezing cold and the current is quite strong. If you're not super experienced, it's best not to go into the water alone – go with at least one other person.

DAY TRIP TIP

HIKING TO THE MÖNCHSBERG

All around Salzburg, cows graze on lush meadows, often with a truly breathtaking Alpine panorama in the background. Sound like a postcard scene? It is, only in real life. If you want to combine nature and stunning views, be sure to check out a hike on the Mönchsberg. Right in the middle of the city and yet surrounded by greenery. It doesn't get much better than this. Good to know: There are several paths up and down, so you can easily tailor your route: from a leisurely stroll to a short hike, anything is possible.
